WHY MPAQ SAFETY?

The complexity of managing health and safety obligations is an ongoing frustration for small businesses, especially in hazardous industries like plumbing, drainage, and gas fitting where risks are more pronounced and there are greater safety obligations on employers. Complying with Australia's strict WHS laws is a must – failing to do so could mean huge penalties and in extreme cases, jail.

To cut through this complexity, MPAQ is offering industry a simple system to manage their health and safety obligations, particularly in relation to the creation of Safe Work Method Statements (SWMS), which can be created in less than five minutes through the MPAQ Safety platform.
